

As a Catholic school, RIS integrates its values through the Portrait of a Phoenix—uniting head, hands, and heart to ground learners in knowledge, guide skillful action, and nurture compassion.

These six learner profiles, each grounded in head, hands, and heart, reflect the qualities RIS strives to cultivate in every student.

A CURIOUS SCHOLAR

Thinks critically, explores creatively, and applies knowledge for meaningful impact.

→ Intellectual Curiosity and Academic Excellence

A PRINCIPLED LEARNER

Acts with integrity, fairness, and courage guided by a strong moral compass.

→ Ethical Character and Integrity

A GLOBALLY-MINDED LEADER

Leads with empathy, embraces diversity, and takes responsible action.

→ Global Citizenship and Inclusion

A VERSATILE COMMUNICATOR

Expresses ideas with clarity, creativity, and purpose across contexts.

→ Effective Communication and Creative Expression

AN INNOVATIVE THINKER

Designs bold, ethical solutions grounded in values and insight.

→ Visionary Thinking and Responsible Innovation

A REFLECTIVE, BALANCED INDIVIDUAL

Cultivates well-being through self-awareness, boundaries, and intention.

→ Balanced Well-Being and Personal Resilience